Words of Encouragement

“I acknowledge it often seems more difficult to trust God than to obey Him. The moral will of God given to us in the Bible is rational and reasonable. The circumstances in which we must trust God often appear irrational and inexplicable....Obeying God is worked out within well-defined boundaries of God’s revealed will. Trusting God is worked out in an arena that has no boundaries. We do not know the extent, the duration, or the frequency of the painful, adverse circumstances in which we must frequently trust God. We are always coping with the unknown.”

Pray for the Unreached

Devanga People of India

Population: 582,000 | Primary religion: Hinduism | Percent Evangelical Christian: 0.00%

Pray for the Holy Spirit to anoint Devanga families, especially the children and youth. Pray he will raise up a new generation of fruitful, multiplying witnesses of Christ's mercy and love. Pray that the believers among the Devanga would shine the light of Christ to their Hindu neighbors and families. Pray that Devanga people would see the futility of their current worship practices and experience a growing desire to know the truth of God's word. Pray for the Lord to multiply the reception and influence of his Word among the Devanga, leading them to love him with their whole being.
