Words of Encouragement

“So for God time is never a limit. He is sovereign over it, the lord of time. That is the important point. Theologians sometimes argue over whether God is ‘in time’ or ‘outside time.’ A better way to think of this is to confess that time is God’s creation. As lord, he is in full control of it, and he authoritatively sets its boundaries. We should note also, however, that because time is God’s creation he is able to enter it at his discretion. So the biblical story is a story of the eternal God who enters the history he has foreordained to befriend temporal creatures and to save them from sin, as well as to judge the wicked.”

- John Frame

“With [God] there is no distinction between the present, past, and future; but all things are equally and always present to Him. With Him duration is an eternal now.”

- Charles Hodge
