Words of Encouragement

“When our glorious Lord entered into our souls wearing His vesture dipped in blood, pardoning and blessing in the plenitude of His grace, then the bells of our heart rang merry peals. The streamers of our joy floated in the fragrant air. The streets of our soul were strewn with roses. The fountains of our love ran with rich red wine, and our soul was as full of bliss as a heart could be this side of heaven. For salvation had come to our house, and mercy’s King had deigned to visit us.”

- Charles H. Spurgeon
