Words of Encouragement

God's unchangeableness...ministers much sweet comfort to His poor church and people. The truth is, there is scarcely any such spring and treasury of comfort as this. "God's immutability," said one, "is the best cordial to refresh a fainting soul." The great cordial God sent Israel in their distress was this: "I AM THAT I AM" (Exo 3:14), or, "I am an unchangeable God"; and indeed that was enough for them. But more particularly there are several consolatory conclusions which flow from God's unchangeableness, conclusions which carry strong consolation in them.
